Report of Library Trustees.

To the Citizens of North Hampton.

Ninety-three books, embracing History, Travel, Autobiography and Fiction, have been added during the year at an expense of ninety-seven dollars and forty-six cents.

Mr. William Wood of Boston, Mass., and a former summer resident of Little Boar's Head, has very kindly donated forty-five volumes, entitled History of the World's Best Literature, by Charles Dudley Warner. These volumes are excellent books of reference, and will be a great help to the pupils of our public schools.

We feel very sorry that such a valuable gift could not be placed in a more suitable building than the town has to show at present.

More interest has been shown and more books taken out of our library the past year than during any previous year since the library has been established, showing a growing regard for such reading.

We hope before another year has passed that the town will have taken some definite action in regard to a new library building.

Respectfully submitted,

EBEN L. DALTON,
GEORGE A. BOYNTON,
FRED L. DOW,

Report of the School Board.

To the Citizens of North Hampton:

A school report is like the index of a book. We may read the titles of the various chapters, but for further knowledge of this very interesting story, we must turn the pages day by day.

The past year discloses very earnest and faithful work on the part of both teachers and pupils. If the careful instruction, so patiently given, is cherished and allowed to grow like good seed in good ground, we shall have citizens who, in coming years, will be an honor to the town.

At the Center Grammar School, Miss Nettie E. Campbell, who still remains with us, is doing excellent work. She is highly regarded by her pupils and the people of the town.

The reputation of Miss Edith M. Child, who teaches the Center Primary School, is well known. Her capabilities and faithfulness are appreciated more the longer she remains with us.

We feel that we are greatly favored in these schools and hope the pupils will improve their golden opportunities.

A change in teachers has been made at the East school. The spring term was taught by Miss Florence E. Rollins, who has many excellent qualifications for teaching and who made many friends while she was with us. In the autumn she secured a position in the High school at Kennebunk, Maine. Her place has been taken by Miss Lillian Porter, of Foxvale, Mass. Miss Porter has thus far done most commendable work and is easily winning the confidence of both parents and pupils.

Rev. T. V. Haines, who, as chairman and treasurer of the School Board, ever labored faithfully in the interests of education, left us in the month of May to enter higher realms of knowledge among the mansions of his Father's house. As it is written, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." Miss Ella M. Haines was appointed to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the year.

At the commencement of the school year a ninth grade was added to the course of study. Three pupils at the Center took advantage of this opportunity for more advanced work. Two were last year's graduates and one had attended school elsewhere. In a short time it was found necessary on account of the increased number of classes, to hire an assistant for one half of each day. Miss Alice M. Dalton served in that capacity until the close of the fall term. At the beginning of this winter term, Miss Lulu M. Warner took the place of assistant.

Several chairs and a blackboard have been purchased for the small recitation room at the Center; also the school rooms in both parts of the town have been put in good order by cleaning, varnishing, etc. Quite a number of new books have been introduced and the old ones carefully looked over and many of them used in exchange.

Among the new books introduced are Blaisdell's Physiologies, new editions of Wentworth's Arithmetics, new editions of Montgomery's Histories, Supplementary Readers from the Youth's Companion Series, and for the ninth grade, Latin, Algebra and Book-keeping.

The percentage of attendance during the fall term has been very good in all the schools, especially so at the Center, but it has been much lower this past month on account of the severe weather.

It is hoped that all parents will take an interest in the education of their children and plan that they shall attend school, unless prevented by illness or very severe weather.

Six pupils have graduated from the Center Grammar school and one from the East school. The Center Grammar school now numbers 30; the Center Primary, 22, and the East school, 21, making in all 73 who attend school in town.

There are thirty-seven weeks in the school year.

There are twenty pupils who attend high schools out of town, fifteen at Hampton, three at Portsmouth, two at Exeter.

The following are the names of those whose tuition is paid by the town:

At Hampton—May Moulton, John Hobbs, Lemira Hobbs, Susie Simpson, Marion Lane, Louise Lane, Blanche Knowles, Amy Fenwick, Harold Locke, Howard Chevalier, Henry Philbrook, James Leavitt, Leon Berry, Frank Taylor, Flora Taylor.

At Portsmouth—Emma Brown, Arnold Smith, Roger Smith.

At Exeter—Nellie I. Bachelder, Carrie C. Bachelder.
